Current Class Openings

3/7/2021

Agility FUNdation classes ($130/5 weeks): Here's where you start , and when finished you will be able to sequence 7-10 obstacles and have a basic understanding of most equipment. Class will be repeated 4-5 times before team is ready for Agility 201.

Agility 201 Classes ($115/5 weeks) are for teams that have completed the Ag FUNdation classes (or a similar foundation program) and can sequence 7-10 obstacles and understand most (if not all) equipment.

Agility 301 Classes ($115/5 weeks) _ are for teams that have a solid mastery of all Agility equipment and are ready to or currently competing at the Novice/Level 1-3/Starters level and above.

Agility 401 Classes ($115/5 weeks) are for teams that are competing (or have the skills necessary to compete) at the Excellent/Masters/Level 4/5 level.

Agility 501 Classes ($115/5 weeks) are for teams interested in more challenges than offered at the highest levels. Here the emphasis is more international and challenging course work.

Skills & Drills Classes ($115/5 weeks) are about short drills instead of longer course work. The class is ongoing, but you can certainly jump into a class for one day or one session as well take multiple sessions.

Toolbox Classes ($115/5 weeks to $184/8 weeks) :These classes are available to teams who are looking for supplemental instruction on a variety of subjects. These classes will cover a single subject each session, such as Running Contacts or Rear Crosses or Weave Poles, etc.
